WESTOBA SEEKING NOMINATIONS FOR BOARD OF DIRECTORS

BRANDON, MB– Westoba Credit Union (WCU) is currently seeking applicants for its Board of Directors. The call for applications officially opens today and will remain open until Friday, December 20, at noon. There are currently one position open in all three of Westoba’s districts.

DISTRICT 1	(Brandon and MAXA Financial)
DISTRICT 2	(The Pas, Carberry, Souris, Rivers, and Glenboro)
DISTRICT 3	(Winnipeg, Killarney, Ninette, Swan Lake, La Riviere, Cartwright and Pilot Mound)

WCU’s Board operates as a collective of three districts and focuses on bringing a member-focused view-point while setting the long-term strategy for the credit union. The Board is specifically interested in attracting new Directors this year with previous experience in business, policy development, and accounting.

“A healthy board of directors aims to reflect its membership,” said WCU Board Chair, Jim Abernethy. “It brings different voices and different perspectives to consider. The nomination and election process help us ensure that we achieve the diversity we need to be successful in our decision making.”

To learn more about being a part of WCU’s Board, as well as information on the nomination and election process, visit Westoba.com or call 1-877-WESTOBA (937-8622).
