Sara's Pantry Receives Cash Injection to Open the Doors

Glenboro, MB 11.20.20 – Sara's Pantry, Glenboro's food security program, is working hard to stock their shelves so they can be ready to service the community as soon as possible. That got a little easier this week with donations from Tracy Rimmer at Rimmer Technology and Jim Abernethy, Westoba Board Chairperson.

"This is important for our community," said Rimmer. "Hunger and need don't just exist in cities, and those of us who can help, should. No one should go to bed hungry, especially not in a country like Canada, and certainly not in agricultural-based communities where helping your neighbours is a way of life."

Jim Abernethy took advantage of a matching donation program Westoba offers to amplify his donation. "Westoba offers each director an opportunity annually to make a donation to a community initiative that Westoba will then match." Said Abernethy. "I chose Sara's Pantry because I see a real need for this service in Glenboro. COVID has had significant impact on so many, I am happy to do what I can to help."

Sara's Pantry is accepting monetary donation as well as non-perishable food donation. Monetary donations can be sent to Sara's Pantry at Box 495, Glenboro, MB R0K 0H0 or dropped off to the Glenboro Westoba Credit Union Branch.

Food Donations can be made to the following Glenboro Locations

Westoba Credit Union, Rimmer Technology, D & A Foods, CO-OP Grocery Store, Glenboro United Church.
